Isec

ISEC is excited to welcome Rusty Flocken to our National Science and Technology Team! Rusty brings over 25 years of valued laboratory products and service solutions experience that will best support the needs of our clients within the Life Sciences marketplace. Rusty is the epitome of a player/coach, a true pros' pro. His experience, positive attitude, energy and ability to connect with people will be a true asset for our business.

The success of our company is due to the quality of people that have become a part of the ISEC family. We continue to hire people based on integrity, character and support of our core values. We are committed to being an exemplary employer in all areas – supported by training, compensation, and a culture of diversity and inclusion.

Together, we build for life's most important moments!
