KÖTTERMANN GROUP ACQUIRES SHARES IN LAB CONCEPT GMBH IN KEMPTEN

Hänigsen, 30 June 2023. The Köttermann Group, a global manufacturer of laboratory infrastructure solutions, is pleased to announce the acquisition of shares in Lab Concept GmbH in Kempten in the Allgäu region in Germany, a renowned engineering and manufacturing company with a strong market presence.

The acquisition represents a significant milestone for the Köttermann Group as it expands its reach and strengthens its position in the scientific community. The addition of Lab Concept to its portfolio fits well with its strategic objectives, increases its market presence and diversifies its product and service offering. The decision to acquire shares in Lab Concept GmbH was motivated by the exceptional reputation of Konrad Kreuzer, Managing Partner of the company, a very talented team of professionals as well as the company's innovative solutions. The Köttermann Group is confident that by combining their respective strengths and expertise, even greater value can be offered to customers and sustainable growth in the industry can be achieved.

With the integration of Lab Concept GmbH, the Köttermann Group will gain access to an extensive knowledge base that will enhance existing capabilities and provide customers with comprehensive solutions. The geographic reach and product portfolio will be expanded to better serve customers in new and existing markets. "We are delighted to welcome the Lab Concept GmbH team to the Köttermann Group," said Marek Krsek, CEO of the Köttermann Group. "Their impressive track record and in-depth industry knowledge perfectly complement our existing strengths. Together we are well positioned to meet the evolving needs of our customers and take advantage of new market opportunities." In the future, the Köttermann Group will continue to focus on providing exceptional quality, innovation and customer satisfaction. Every effort will be made to ensure a smooth transition for all stakeholders, including customers, employees and partners.

The Köttermann Group is owned by the BHM Group. BHM invests in European life science and health care technology companies with unique know-how and products. The Köttermann Group uses its expertise to provide innovative laboratory solutions to customers in the scientific sector worldwide.

Lab Concept GmbH is a renowned engineering and manufacturing company known for its innovative, intelligent and high-quality products and services.
